EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into as of [Date], by and between [Predatory Corp Name], a corporation organized under the laws of [State/Country] (the "Employer"), and [Employee Name], an individual residing at [Employee Address] (the "Employee").

1. POSITION, DUTIES, AND EXTENDED HOURS

1.1 Title and Duties. Employee shall serve in the position of [Job Title] and shall perform all duties assigned by Employer. Employer reserves the right to unilaterally alter, expand, or demote Employee’s title, duties, and reporting structure at any time without notice.

1.2 Uncompensated Overtime. Employee is expected to work whatever hours are necessary to complete assigned tasks, including nights, weekends, and holidays. Employee acknowledges that their compensation is all-inclusive and that they are entirely exempt from, and waive all rights to, overtime pay, differential pay, or compensatory time off, regardless of local statutory defaults.

2. COMPENSATION, PERFORMANCE DEDUCTIONS, AND CLAWBACKS

2.1 Base Salary. Employer shall pay Employee a base salary of [Amount], payable in accordance with Employer's standard payroll schedule, subject to the withholding traps below.

2.2 Automatic Performance Deductions. Employee explicitly authorizes Employer to deduct funds directly from their paycheck, without prior notice or a separate authorization form, to offset any financial loss, property damage, software bug, missed deadline, or client dissatisfaction caused by Employee’s performance. The determination of such loss shall be made solely by Employer.

2.3 Sign-On Bonus Clawback. Any sign-on bonus, relocation allowance, or training costs paid to Employee are contingent on continuous service. If Employee separates from the company for any reason within thirty-six (36) months of the hire date, Employee must repay 100% of these gross amounts within five (5) business days.

3. ASYMMETRICAL TERMINATION & FORCED EXIT PENALTIES

3.1 At-Will Termination by Employer. Employer may terminate Employee's employment at any time, with or without cause, and without prior notice. Upon termination for convenience, Employer's sole financial obligation is to pay earned salary up to the exact minute of termination.

3.2 Restrictive Resignation by Employee. Employee may only resign by providing ninety (90) days' prior written notice. During this notice period, Employee must continue working diligently and train their replacement. If Employee fails to provide the full 90 days' notice or leaves early, Employee agrees to pay Employer liquidated damages equal to three (3) months of their gross salary to compensate for operational disruption.

4. TOTAL INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY CAPTURE (THE CATCH-ALL)

4.1 Absolute Assignment. Employee agrees that all inventions, modifications, software code, designs, business ideas, and works of authorship created, conceived, or reduced to practice by Employee during the period of their employment (collectively, "Inventions") belong exclusively to Employer.

4.2 Off-Hours and Personal Equipment Trap. This assignment applies absolutely to all Inventions, whether created during official working hours or during Employee's personal time, and whether utilizing Employer's equipment or Employee's personal devices. Employee explicitly waives any legal presumption that projects built on weekends or personal laptops belong to the individual. Employee grants Employer a perpetual, royalty-free, worldwide license to any pre-existing personal intellectual property that touches Employer's workflow.

5. AGGRESIVE RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

5.1 Global Non-Compete. For a period of two (2) years following the termination of employment for any reason (whether voluntary or involuntary), Employee shall not, directly or indirectly, perform services for, accept employment from, or consult with any entity globally that competes with, or plans to compete with, any line of business operated or contemplated by Employer.

5.2 Absolute Non-Solicitation. For a period of three (3) years post-employment, Employee shall not contact, solicit, or attempt to hire any employee, independent contractor, client, or historical prospect of Employer.

5.3 Disparagement Ban. Employee shall never make any statement, oral or written (including anonymous reviews on platforms like Glassdoor or social media), that could be interpreted as critical, negative, or derogatory toward Employer, its products, or its executives.

6. INDEMNIFICATION, LIABILITY SHIFTING, AND LITIGATION COSTS

6.1 Third-Party Claims. If Employer is sued by a client or third party due to an action, software bug, or operational error tied to Employee’s work product, Employee shall personally defend and indemnify Employer against all losses.

6.2 Fee-Shifting. In the event of any dispute arising out of this Agreement, including claims brought by Employee regarding wage theft, discrimination, or wrongful termination, Employee shall bear all court costs, administrative fees, and legal expenses incurred by both Employee and Employer, regardless of which party ultimately prevails.

6.3 Waiver of Class Action and Jury Trial. Employee waives all rights to a jury trial or to participate as a plaintiff or class member in any class-action lawsuit against Employer.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement.
